Coach Trip to Boissy St. Yon weekend 25th - 28th May

A brief report on the Visit by ABAI to Colney Heath

As usual the coach carrying our French friends arrived on Friday afternoon with little warning, but warm greetings were exchanged as acquaintances renewed before we left the Football Club car park for suppers. Hosting her French partner for the first time, Iris Green reports "had a nice dinner out on Friday night, St Albans Cathedral and market, and the Soiree at the lovely venue on Saturday, and Kenwood House for lunch on Sunday". A warm Saturday helped our various excursions - Camden market, the Wembley Stadium tour, and shopping of course. Returning to Aldwickbury Park Golf Club on our 35th anniversary for our Soiree was eased by John Rowland's club membership. The Soiree, with the magic show (conjured up by Mary), was enjoyed by all - with good food, wines, and dancing to the music by LA Nights. Sunday is by tradition for many, BBQ day. Contrary to our French guests' hopes, it didn't rain, but the sharp cold that descended in the late afternoon provided a new twist to add to the visit's lexicon. I hear vigorous games were played to prevent frostbite at the Skell's, while at the Clemow-Howard BBQ we retired to the lounge, some chatting and some dozing, in the heat of a roaring fire, flushed with Chablis and trifle. Sadness again early on Monday morning as we said our farewells and "see you next year in Boissy!"

Thank you to all who participated, and especially to our management committee, for making this yet another great and memorable weekend.
